Reon Schutte is an internationally acclaimed speaker who shares his epic personal life journey from South African Special Forces soldier to nearly 13 years of hell in Zimbabwe's infamous Chikurubi prison. His message is a universal one about the power of the human will to overcome extreme circumstances, and of the human soul to use such circumstances for transformation. The key is choice, a powerful tool to which every human has access at every moment. From a man who lived for more than a decade in place of No Choice, we learn that even when it appears we have no options, we do. We are never without choice. Once we realize this fundamental truth, we are set free to live an authentic, powerful, successful life. Reon's story reminds us of our own wisdom and triggers the awareness to tap into our own Power of Choice to transform our lives.

Hundreds of thousands of people around the world have heard Reon share his story; this workshop, however, is the first time the audience will have the luxury of time to share their stories with him, in an intimate, small group setting, and to process the impact of his inspiration into action items for their own lives.

Herb Stevenson Herb Stevenson is President/CEO of the Cleveland Consulting Group, Inc. and bridges the worlds of business and spiritual healing.
